Family Legacy Video wins gold award

Tucson, Ariz. – Steve Pender, president of Tucson’s Family Legacy Video, Inc., has received a Gold Award from the 2015 AVA Digital Awards competition. Pender's award came in the Video Biography category, for a video entitled, “An Aloha Spirit,” which celebrated the life and career of a Hawaiian businessman. Pender shot the video on-location on Oahu.

AVA Digital Awards is sponsored and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (AMCP). The awards recognize outstanding achievement by creative professionals involved in the concept, direction, design and production of media. There were about 2,100 entries from throughout the United States, Canada and several other countries in the 2015 competition. The international organization consists of several thousand production, marketing, communication, advertising, public relations, and free-lance professionals.
